THE DRIFTWOOD TEAM

SCOTT DAVID KUHN

CEO + FOUNDER

What is he hungry for?

The restaurant biz. Scott mixed culinary skills with a brave soul, and a lifetime of restaurant and catering experiences to open 10 successful establishments in 16 years and consult with numerous others. He also craves ice cream, fishing, golf, and honestly, a Popeye's chicken salad to-go.

What keeps him full?

Any opportunity to bring great food to the people of Cleveland; road trips with his family; and working with charities that help children.

A few more bites

Scott loves spending time outdoors, the smell of freshly baked bread and the sound of a putt hitting the bottom of the cup.

CHRIS HODGSON

PRESIDENT

What's he hungry for?

Opportunities to put his Le Cordon Blue-degree-meets-Food-Network-experiences to work bringing amazing food and hospitality to as many people as possible. Chris also can't resist crispy garlic fries dipped in way too much mayo and ketchup, and warm, toasted, crunchy peanut butter and grape jelly sandwiches.

What keeps him full?

The rush of working in this industry; family hikes, food truck culture, his kids' lacrosse games; and his compassion for helping those in need.

One more bite

Best chef-ly advice? "Perfection is not attainable, but if we chase perfection, we can catch excellence."

TOBY HEINTZELMAN

OPERATIONS MANAGER

What's he hungry for?

Heading up as many energized, smartly-run, thriving hospitality environments as humanly possible. Toby's also hungry for his standing lentil soup, hummus, and falafel to-go order; and any book series with good-guy government assassins.

What keeps him full?

Leading and teaching in a way that doesn't feel like leading and teaching; 40 years of amusing, interesting, and fulfilling hospitality experiences in his pretty-close-to-a-dream job; and listening to baseball games.

Extra helping

His theme song? "In The Summertime" by Mungo Jerry "...we're always happy, life's for living, yeah, that's our philosophy, dee-dee dah" ...

ERIK MARTINEZ

DIRECTOR OF QUALITY CONTROL

What's he hungry for?

The daily adventures of spending 28 years in the restaurant industry as a chef and in every restaurant job imaginable; Yakitori, any cut, with salt; and the scent of onions and garlic sautéing in the morning signaling the start of a Filipino breakfast.

What keeps him full?

His love of cooking; the opportunity to help guide employees in their careers; and dreaming of perfect days spent exploring foreign cities as a food and travel writer—then discovering a great disc golf course.

Extra Helping

The superpower Erik would most appreciate? The ability to stop time. His favorite food words? Spinalis and rutabaga.

TIM PURSIFULL

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS

What's he hungry for?

The opportunity to create special moments in the lives of guests, family, and fellow employees. Providing direction and assistance to all involved, that help to execute a shared vision of success.

What keeps him full?

His work, his family, and the opportunity to teach and learn in every situation. Challenging the normal paradigm to expand the definition of excellence.

A few more bites

I have learned more in the kitchens of my family than in any classroom. The hopes and dreams of a people are produced and consumed daily at the dinner table.

MATT MATHLAGE

DIRECTOR OF CULINARY

What's he hungry for?

Providing exquisite and creative culinary delights. Matthew has been cooking as long as he can remember from his mother's kitchen to Executive Chef at age 25. He is classically French trained and has made a career out of making innovative dishes with surprising flavor combinations and beautiful presentations.

What keeps him full?

In his free time, he enjoys making memories with his three sons and has a passion for auto racing and the Cleveland Browns.

A few more bites

IMatthew has owned award-winning restaurants including Ohio City's cult classic Light Bistro and Peachtree Southern Kitchen & cocktails in historic Hudson, Ohio. Mathlage has opened 15 restaurants as a chef and consultant from Manhattan to Florida. Matthew now holds the position of Director of Culinary at Cleveland's premier caterer Driftwood Catering.

ALICIA KOLISH

DIRECTOR OF ADMINISTRATION

What is she hungry for?

The challenge of enhancing and organizing processes to create an amazing experience for colleagues and guests alike. Worked in the hospitality industry for over 20 years in hotel and restaurant work ranging from every FOH position from host to Corporate Operations Manager.

What keeps her full?

Alicia is an avid gym goer and focused on fitness and a healthy lifestyle. Loves to travel and on her bucket list to visit every state. She enjoys spending quality time with family and friends

A few more bites

Enjoys the seasonal changes, being continually active outdoors in the warmer months, hiking or kayaking and during colder months spending time indoors reading and watching reality TV.

ISAAC REPKO

DIRECTOR OF LOGISTICS

What's he hungry for?

The ability to share his passion for food, spreadsheets, business knowledge, and building relationships with people from not only the Cleveland area but all over the world. Isaac also loves food trucks and would stand in the middle of a blizzard for a Philly Cheesesteak and some bacon cheese fries from a food truck stand.

What keeps him full?

The always changing fast-paced work environment; the opportunity of both teaching and learning from coworkers and peers; and the ability to help make someone's special occasion magnificent with exceptional service.

One more bite

"Great things are done by a series of small things brought together"

— Vincent Van Gogh

NATALIE MILLER

DIRECTOR OF SALES

What's she hungry for?

Any opportunity to inspire and create memorable experiences for guests. Being able to bring to life a client's vision and provide one of a kind culinary delights and personalized service. She loves pizza, ice cream and charcoal-grilled filet mignon with sautéed garlic and onions.

What keeps her full?

Her family, love for the beach, helping others and traveling. Continually gaining knowledge, new experiences and cultivating relationships. The energy and excitement of the events industry.

A few more bites

She's motivated by challenges and opportunities and believes we can all learn from each other. Faith, family, and food lay the foundation for a healthy and happy life.

TESTIMONIALS

The quality and service Driftwood provides is absolutely spectacular! From the beginning, Driftwood has continually impressed us with their unique style, delicious food and overall helpful event management. We love working with the entire team. We couldn't ask for a better partner that understands and delivers on our company culture and vision!

Amanda Gerding, Hyland Software

Driftwood Catering provided an innovative and fun menu for our Annual Fundraiser, Band Aid Bash. Their execution, service, and quality was a perfect match for our 500+ person event and helped make it one of the most popular fundraisers in Cleveland.

Josh Kravitz, Medwish International

I was fortunate to have won a catered meal for 20 people at a nonprofit live auction . The chefs were Scott Kuhn and Chris Hodgson who own a number of very good restaurants in the Cleveland area as well as a well known food truck in the city. They came highly recommended and I am glad that I won the auction because they did a spectacular job . The meal was a multiple course dinner prepared from scratch at my home . Every course was fresh,interesting and delicious. My guests were still talking about the meal a few days after the event. Equally impressive was the perfect pace of the service and the fact that they left my home in perfect condition which made my wife very happy. I would highly recommend Driftwood Catering!
